REUNION REGISTRATION and BUFFET LUNCHEON FEES ARE COMBINED. Because we are often asked what becomes of the monies generated at our reunions, a short recap is as follows: After we pay the hotel for their facilities and for the luncheon, we use any monies left over to help defray the expenses of the reunion. This includes your souvenir badge; registration packets; other cost of hotel facilities; reunion expenses such as printing materials for the reunion; mailing expenses, and reunion letter costs. IF we have any monies left after the reunion is paid for, we use it to help with the printing and mailing expenses for our family journals. Your cousins who are involved in the reunion donate their time and money. Our aim is to see, to the best of our ability, that the reunion is an enjoyable time for all.

Include a picture of one of your old ancestors with your registration form so we can add it to the program. You can talk about your ancestor at the reunion and tell us a little about your family.

Please help us out by contributing handcrafted items to sell at our bazaar and raffle. Since our TTFA membership dues do not cover our journal printing and mailing costs, we use any monies left from the reunion income to help offset these costs.
